

Fun with Flip Books

During the study of the five themes of geography, use a flip book to help reinforce the concepts.

Materials:

Three 4¼" x 11" (11 cm x 28 cm) colorful paper strips

Markers or colorful pencils

Magazines

Stapler

Scissors

Glue

Directions*:

1. Line up the three pieces of paper so that the bottom of each sheet extends ¾" (2 cm) beyond the sheet above it.
2. While holding the three pieces of paper together, fold them so that the top of the first sheet is ¾" (2 cm) from the bottom of the first sheet.
3. Staple the top of the flip book.
4. Label the top flap (the cover) "The Five Themes of Geography."
5. On the next five flaps, label each with one of the themes: Location, Place, Human/Environment Interaction, Movement, and Regions.
6. Then, write the definition of each theme underneath the previous flap.
7. Draw or use pictures cut from magazines to illustrate each theme.

The Five Themes of Geography

Location vel

Place

Human/Environment Interaction

Movement

Regions

*See diagrams on page 31 for further clarification.