

Immigration to the United States by Country, 1820–1920

1. What country was the origin of the majority of immigrants to the United States between 1820 and 1920?

The majority of immigrants were from Germany.

2. What country was the origin of the minority of immigrants to the United States between 1820 and 1920?

A minority of immigrants were from Sweden.

3. Did more immigrants come to the United States from Russia or England between 1820 and 1920?

More immigrants come from Russian than England.

4. What was the difference in percentage between German and Irish immigrants to the United States between 1820 and 1920?

The difference was five percent.

5. What was the difference in percentage between Italian and Austrian-Hungarian immigrants to the United States between 1820 and 1920?

The difference was two percent.