

Every Student Future Ready

Empower students to build and customize their very own roadmap for academic, career and future success.

For over 20 years we've been helping schools, districts and states ensure children graduate with personalized plans for college and career success. Last year, we rebranded from Career Cruising to Xello and, with that, introduced a brand-new program of the same name. Our engaging software helps every student build an online portfolio that reflects their interests, skills, experiences, goals and plans. As students build their vibrant roadmap and the knowledge needed for future success, educators can track and measure student progress in real-time -- making for easy reporting against state mandates like Chapter 339. With programs from Xello you'll get:

- Vibrant career, college and major profiles that let students fully explore a variety of future options and pathways
- Fully integrated course planning that empowers students to build academic plans that align to their aspirations
- Turnkey college and career readiness curriculum, with digital lessons that help students build the skills and knowledge they'll need for lifelong success.
- Interactive planning tools empower students to build a visual roadmap for achieving their goals
- Easy to understand reporting that shows engagement, activity, portfolio completion rates and plans both at a student and school level.
